

Peninsula Section Annual Conference
 Washington Chapter APA
 October 19, 2007 9:00AM - 3:30PM
 Shelton Civic Center
 525 W. Cota, Shelton WA

Name(s) _____

Contact _____

Payment enclosed

To Pay Day-of

THEME... Evolution of Community Planning in Washington State

October is National Community Planning Month. Community Planning has changed a lot over time. Let's reflect on where planning has been, and think what our work today says about where the field is headed.

AGENDA

8:30-9:00 Registration

Sign in and coffee and refreshments

9:00-9:15 Welcome and Introduction

Josh Peters, President Peninsula Section APA

9:15 - Noon Room A

Short Course On Local Planning

An educational course put on by CTED. Great introduction for Planning Commissioners, planners, and the public.

9:15 - Noon Room B

Public Engagement Training Session

Training session for planners on effective communications with the public. Led by Brad Jarkovich and Rick Sepler.

Noon - 1:00 Buffet Lunch Free With Conference Registration

1:00 - 1:45 Planning Expo

Information displays on a range of recent planning projects by State, local and other agencies. Discussion and idea sharing.

1:45 - 3:30 Panel Discussion: Evolution of Planning in Washington

Long-time planners Robert Cornish, FAICP and Ken Dueker, AICP will lead a discussion on the past and future of planning.

REGISTER

$10 Registration*

Please provide information requested above and return by mail or write an e-mail. Walk-In registrations will be accepted. RSVP encouraged. Make checks out to Peninsula Section Washington APA.

*Note: The CTED Short Course on local planning is free. The registration fee is not required for anyone attending just the short course.

Barbara Robinson
 PO Box 186, Shelton, WA 98584
 barbarr@co.mason.wa.us
 p. 360-427-9670 x603

For Directions

www.ci.shelton.wa.us/municipal\_court/directions.php

Parking

Parking is free on site at the Shelton Civic Center.

